Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/22

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/22

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$78	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$571	administrative fee
	$1,738	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

- C. Attorneys are willing and able to represent Client in the aforementioned matters.

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE FOREGOING RECITALS, of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth and of other good and valuable consideration, Client and Attorneys hereby agree as follows:

- 1. Client in any dischargeability actions, judicial lien avoidances, relief from stay actions or any other adversary proceedings, or negotiations for short sale, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or negotiating consent judgments.

It is also understood by Client that her personal bankruptcy estate will be considered an Asset Estate because of the equity interests in real estate that she owns. The Firm will use its best efforts to negotiate a settlement with the Chapter 7 trustee to purchase the trustee's right, title and interest in the real estate interests held by Client. However, if the Client is unable to purchase the trustee's interest she understands that the trustee has the right to sell the real estate to the highest bidder and terminate Client's possession and interests in the real estate.

This Attorney Retention Agreement is terminated with an issuance of discharge or dismissal of the case.

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT FOR LEGAL SERVICES

The following is an explanation of the basis on which Golan Christie Taglia LLP bills for its services and the expenses and advances incurred on behalf of its clients, and details various practices and policies at the Firm which govern the relationship between Golan Christie Taglia LLP and its clients.

We normally submit monthly invoices to our clients unless otherwise agreed. Monthly billing ensures that our clients have a current understanding of our charges and can intelligently budget legal expenses. Invoices are usually most influenced by the amount of time expended and the current hourly billing rates of the lawyers involved in the matter. Each invoice is ordinarily reviewed by the attorney who has primary billing responsibility for that particular client prior to its submission to the client for payment. The attorney reviews the time recorded to the client's account since the last billing. The purpose of the review is to determine whether the invoice should be calculated solely on the basis of the time recorded or should be adjusted according to the circumstances.

Current hourly billing rates of attorneys and paralegals in our Firm are as follows: Partner rates range from $470.00 to $605.00 per hour; associate attorney rates range from $370.00 to $470.00 per hour; of-counsel attorney rates range from $390.00 to $585.00 per hour; and paralegal rates range from $170.00 to $265.00 per hour. Typically, the more experience an individual has, the higher the hourly rate. Ordinarily, we review and adjust our billing rates annually. We accept payments via ACH, wire, e-check, check by mail and credit card. Please note that credit card payments will be charged a 2% processing fee.

In addition to the attorney having primary responsibility for a client's work, other Golan Christie Taglia attorneys and paralegals may work on a client's matters. These individuals operate under the supervision of the attorney having primary responsibility for the client.

Clients are billed for expenses incurred in connection with their matters, such as photocopying, printing, litigation support, special mail services, messenger and overnight delivery services. Expenses would also include advances incurred on behalf of a client such as filing fees, court reporters, consulting fees, printing, computerized legal research (i.e., Westlaw, LexisNexis, Catalyst, etc.) and travel expenses, and items purchased and used exclusively in connection with a particular client's matters. Other expenses may include third-party costs associated with electronically stored information. Modern litigation involves the collection, preservation, production and analysis of electronically stored information ("ESI"). Golan Christie Taglia LLP uses a cloud-based service to collect, process and store ESI, the cost for which is charged to clients monthly on a per-gigabyte basis. Other ESI services are typically handled by the Firm's Technology Team, which charges on an hourly basis for the work performed. These fees are in addition to the attorneys' hourly rates or third-party costs reflected above.

We ask and expect payment of our invoices within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice since delayed payment adds to our overall costs of providing services. To avoid burdening our clients who pay promptly with these additional costs, we reserve the right to charge interest at the rate of 15%, or the greatest amount allowed by law, per annum on the amount of any invoice that remains unpaid for more than forty-five (45) days after the date of the invoice. In addition, we reserve the right to discontinue performance and to withdraw as your attorneys, regardless of the status of any matter in which we may be involved and regardless of whether it may prejudice your position if any invoice remains unpaid for more than sixty (60) days after the date of the invoice.

All funds deposited into our Client Trust Account will be held for a period of ten (10) business days before disbursement.

It is of the utmost importance for us to know at all times that you are satisfied with the legal services being provided by Golan Christie Taglia LLP. So that there will always be full and open communication between us, and so that we may clearly understand and promptly deal with any concerns a client may have about our services, any questions concerning a particular invoice or about our legal services should be raised within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice or the occurrence of the event which causes you concern.

GOLAN | CHRISTIE | TAGLIA

Except for original corporate records or any records or files which we receive from you or third parties with the understanding that they belong to you, it is agreed that all of our files, copies of documents, correspondence or other materials which we may accumulate in connection with our representation of you, including copies of materials filed with any regulatory agency, shall be the property of Golan Christie Taglia LLP. You may have copies at any time during our representation of you. Upon the termination of the engagement and upon request, we will return your property to you within thirty (30) days of such termination, provided that all fees and charges billed by Golan Christie Taglia LLP have been paid in full. Copies of our files and other materials which we may have accumulated during our representation will thereafter be made available to you, at your expense, while we retain them. However, it is specifically agreed that we have the right to dispose of our files at such time as we determine that such files no longer need to be retained. After disposal, these materials will no longer be available. In the event that all of our fees and charges are not paid in full, we reserve the right to assert an Attorney's Retaining Lien against all of the materials contained in our files.

We expect our clients to be actively involved with the matters we are handling for them, to participate in meetings and to provide whatever information and cooperation may be necessary. We also expect that the information we receive from our clients will be accurate and complete. If a client does not cooperate with us or provides us with information which is incomplete or inaccurate, we reserve the right to withdraw as the attorneys for that client.

In connection with audits of a client's financial statements, Golan Christie Taglia LLP may be requested from time to time to furnish certain information or to confirm information. By engaging us, you are authorizing us to respond to such requests in a reasonable manner and to furnish such information as is consistent with reasonable requests from the auditors and the attorney-client privilege. Time spent responding to such requests will be charged at our regular rates.

The retention of a lawyer does not insure that the desired outcome will be achieved. Accordingly, Golan Christie Taglia LLP cannot guaranty the results of its services. Rather, Golan Christie Taglia LLP will provide competent representation to its clients. Competent representation requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness and preparation necessary to handle the client's matters.

Where we have been asked to represent more than one individual or entity in a matter, the Rules of Professional Conduct promulgated by the Illinois Supreme Court require us to disclose that representation of multiple clients is permitted so long as the clients do not have directly adverse interests. However, we may not represent multiple clients if the representation of one or more of those clients may be materially limited by the Firm's responsibilities to another client or to a third person, or by the Firm's or a lawyer's own interests. More simply stated, we can represent multiple parties in a matter so long as each party has similar interests. At such time as those interests diverge, we may no longer be able to represent any of the affected clients. If the matter which is the subject of the engagement letter involves the representation of multiple clients or entities, the execution and delivery of the engagement letter to Golan Christie Taglia LLP by each client is an acknowledgment that the clients have similar interests and that each consents to our representation of the other clients. In addition, where representing multiple clients or parties, unless otherwise agreed in writing by Golan Christie Taglia LLP, the clients are jointly and severally obligated with respect to the payment of our invoices.

If we must employ the services of a collection agent or an attorney, including an attorney of Golan Christie Taglia LLP, with respect to any claim seeking compensation for unpaid legal services related to our engagement (including, without limitation, any enforcement action, arbitration or other legal proceeding), or if an attorney is retained to represent Golan Christie Taglia LLP in any bankruptcy, reorganization, receivership or other proceeding affecting creditors' rights and involving a claim under the engagement letter, or if an attorney is retained to represent us in any other proceeding in connection with the engagement letter, then you shall pay or reimburse us for all costs and expenses incurred by us in connection therewith, including, without limitation, all attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, in addition to all other amounts due hereunder.

The Terms of Engagement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Illinois and any disputes under this agreement shall be litigated in Federal or State Court located in Chicago, Illinois.

GOLAN | CHRISTIE | TAGLIA

We reserve the right to modify these terms and conditions at any time. A copy of our current terms and conditions can be found at www.gct.law.
